

ORDINANCE No. 38

DOCTOR OF AYURVEDIC MEDICINE

1. Eligibility for Admission:

The Post-graduate course leading to Doctorate in Ayurvedic Medicine will be open to:-

- (a) holders of University degree in Ayurved such as B.A.M.S. (Saugar, Raipur, Gwalior, Indore), A.M.S. (Banaras) and other equivalent qualifications.
- (b) the candidate must have worked as House Officer for a period of six months or has had practical experience of one year in the subject in a recognised institution after passing the final examination A candidate may take admission without above experience provided he/she has completed two years professional work after graduation.

2. Period of Study:

- (i) The course of study and training will extend over a period of three calendar years after admission.
- (ii) The candidates will be required to attend any special lectures, demonstrations and participation in other activities arranged for them by the college.

3. Enrolment and Registration:

- (i) Candidates will be admitted to the course once a year.

Practical and Clinical:

Case Taking	30	}	100	50
Instruments and	20
Appliances
Viva	50

Shalaky Tantra

Theory:

Paper-I Section A	50	}	100	50
Section B	50

- (ii) A candidate will be registered for the degree after being promoted to the second year class, the examination of which will be held twice a year in July and January, and on submission of fee of Rs. 25/-

4. Subjects of award;

The Degree of Doctor of Ayurvedic Medicine shall be awarded in the following subjects:

- (a) Kayachikitsa
- (b) Ras Shastra
- (c) Dravya Guna
- (d) Shalya and Shalakya Tantra
- (e) Dosh Dhatu Mal Vigyan
- (f) Shareer Vigyan

5. Examination:

The Post-graduate course leading to Doctor of Ayurvedic Medicine shall have two examinations as follows:

I. Preliminary Examination

The Preliminary examination shall be held at the end of one academic year after admission. There will be five papers, each of three hours duration and oral/practical examination in the following subjects:-

- Paper I Shareer and Dosh dhatu mal Vigyan
- Paper II Dravyaguna and Ras Shastra
- Paper III Ayurveda Darshan and Itihas
- Paper IV Applied Physiology with Bio-chemistry.
- Paper V Applied Pathology & Bacteriology.

- Note:
- (i) The subject under I, II, & III will be studied with particular reference to the Fundamental Principles of Ayurveda and their applied aspect.
 - (ii) The following subjects will also be taught in the first year of the course; but there will be no examination in these subjects; -
 - (a) Medical statistics.
 - (b) Experimental methods of Medical Research.

Note: A certificate of having undergone training in the above subject should be produced before appearing at the Preliminary examination.

- (iii) (a) The Preliminary examination will be held twice a year ordinarily in the month of April and October and the candidate can avail of a maximum of three chances.
- (b) For being declared successful at the examination the candidate will have to pass in all the subjects and practicals separately.
- (c) A candidate who has failed in one or more subjects, shall be exempted in the subsequent examinations from appearing in such subjects or practicals in which he/she has passed.
- (d) If a candidate fails in one subject only he/she will be promoted to the next higher class; but he/she will have to pass in that subject before he/she is allowed to appear at the Final Examination.

II. Final Examination

- (1) The Final examination will be held twice a year generally in the month of April and October.
The examination shall consist of three written papers each of three hours duration, one practical, clinical and Viva-voce test and thesis.
- (2) The candidates offering Kayachikitsa as their subject for D.Ay.M. Examination will have the following papers:-
 - Paper I Roganidan (Clinical methods and diagnosis)
 - Paper II Chikitsa (Medicine and Therapeutics)
 - Paper III Charak shnhita with Chakrapanis commentry with special reference to kayachikitsa.
- (3) (i) The candidate will have to submit the thesis three months before the examination and will be permitted to appear at the final examination only after the thesis has been approved.
(ii) The thesis will represent the out come of the scientific research carried out by the candidate on the problem selected by him and completed under the guidance of the Supervisor appointed by the University.

- (iii) The thesis can be presented in Hindi, Sanskrit or English Language

4. Thesis

- (a) Before the candidate is allowed to undertake the work on the thesis, the title of thesis should be registered with the University at any time subsequent to registration for Degree but not later than six months after registration. Such an application shall be accompanied by:-
- (i) Full title of the thesis with an outline of the proposed work and indicating the familiarity of the candidate with the proposed scheme of work.
- (ii) The title of the thesis and its outline shall be scrutinised by a committee comprising of the Kulapati, the Dean of the Faculty of Ayurved and the Chairman of the Board of Studies of the subject concerned.
- (b) The registration of the candidate for Doctor of Ayurvedic Medicine will be cancelled if the candidate fails to submit the title of the thesis within six months from the date of registration
- (c) Once the title of the thesis is accepted, the candidate shall not be allowed to change the proposed scheme of work unless prior sanction obtained from the University.
- (d) No candidate shall be allowed to submit the thesis before the expiry of one calendar year after submission of the title of the thesis.
- (e) The thesis shall embody the results of the candidate's own research or observations and shall be accompanied by precise reference of the publications quoted in his thesis. The thesis must attain a high standard and be satisfactory as regards literary presentation as well as in other respects. With the thesis. the candidate shall submit any printed contribution to the advancement of medical, surgical science which he may have published.

The thesis should contain, at the end . a summary, not exceeding three fullscap pages, embodying also the conclusions arrived at by the candidate. The thesis must be typewritten on one side of the paper 11" x

8" with margin of 1" each side and must be bound with the name of the candidate and the title of the subject on the outer cover.

- (f) Three copies of the bound thesis together with a certificate or certificates from the Supervisor or Supervisors must reach the Office of the Registrar atleast three months before the examination.
- (g) The thesis shall be examined by three examiners one of them shall be internal under whom the candidate has worked for the thesis.
- (h) The thesis shall only be accepted after unanimous approval by the examiners appointed to examine. In case there is some difference of opinion it will be referred to the fourth examiner whose decision shall be final.
- (i) The thesis, if accepted, shall become the property of the University and permission for publishing the same or any part of it shall not be granted until the results are announced.
- (j) If the thesis is not accepted. it will be referred back to the candidate with the remarks of the examiners and the candidate can resubmit the thesis after making necessary improvements in the light of the examiners report, to the University but not before a further period of six months after the first submission of thesis.

(5) Results

- (i) No mark will be assigned. The fitness of the candidate for the degree will be determined by the examiners in various parts of the examination.
- (ii) The degree of Doctor of Ayurvedic Medicine shall be conferred on the candidate after the acceptance of the thesis and after the candidate has passed the prescribed examinations in the special subject selected by the candidate.

- (6) Transitory Provision - The repealed Ordinance relating to Doctor of Ayurvedic Medicine Examination shall remain effective till the examinations of 1974, and this new ordinance shall be applicable for the examination of 1975.