Online
Interdisciplinary Refresher Course in Humanities
(02/12/2024 to 17/12/2024)

The Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur Chattishgarh, is organizing a Refresher Course - Humanities during 02nd to 17th December 2024 between 10.30 AM to 05.30 PM.

Course Objectives:

The University Grants Commission (UGC) of the Government of India is dedicated to the revival and promotion of India's rich knowledge tradition. This vast intellectual heritage encompasses a wide range of fields, including philosophy, language, literature, grammar, logic, astrology, Ayurveda, and music, with its roots in the Vedas and Upanishads. Indian traditions are foundational in imparting courage, resilience, and wisdom for life.

Spanning over 4,000 years, the Indian literary works such as the Vedas, Puranas, Ramayana, Mahabharata, and other religious texts, are integral to understanding Indian cultural values. The major Indian religions—Hinduism, Jainism, and Buddhism—are also represented through important religious texts in Sanskrit, contributing significantly to the country's intellectual heritage. Additionally, the rich literary traditions in various Indian languages continue to offer contemporary insights and experiences.

These traditions not only provide a deep understanding of philosophical ideas but also offer practical wisdom for navigating life's complexities. To ensure the continued relevance and preservation of this invaluable knowledge, it is crucial to engage in academic research and education. It is expected that the academic program on "Indian Knowledge Tradition and Literature" will greatly benefit scholars by offering them a comprehensive understanding of these timeless intellectual traditions.

Who Should Attend?

All Literature and Languages faculties of college and Universities that are included under section 2 (f) of the UGC act. The teachers of the colleges affiliated to the University for at least five years can also participate.
