

15-day-long yoga camp commences at PRSU

Group of participants performed a posture of yoga.

RAIPUR, May 25

PT RAVISHANKAR Shukla University (PRSU) in association with University Grant Commission (UGC) and Inter University Center for Yogic Sciences is hosting a 15-day-long yoga camp in the university. The yoga camp that commenced on Wednesday is going to conclude on June 8.

Director of Inter University Center for Yogic Sciences Professor Avinash Chandra

Pandey. PRSU Vice Chancellor Professor K L Verma and other faculty members of the university were present during the inaugural session of the camp.

As per the information received, around 120 students registered their active participation on the first day of the camp either physically or virtually. On the occasion experts, demonstrated as well as helped participated in performing/practicing different postures of yoga.